I am writing to you to request that you leave the media rules alone.

Please leave the rules
"as is".

These radio stations do not need the additional paperwork that rule changes will require.

Subject: In the Matter of Broadcast Localism (MB Docket No. 04-233)

Dear Chairman Martin,

I am Julian Brown, Manager Corporate Contributions Nicor Gas and a member of the Clear Channel Radio Chicago Community Advisory Board. With over 20 years of experience in the field of community affairs, I have many opportunities to volunteer my time and talent to support the community. I chose to become a member of the Clear Channel Advisory Board because of their commitment to serve their more than 3 million listeners.

The Clear Channel commitment is evident by how they listen and respond to those they serve. The Clear Channel listening audience said they had concerns surrounding health issues, voter registration, teen violence, women's issues and high energy cost. Clear Channel responded with media awareness campaigns to address these issues and more. It is the "and more" that makes Clear Channel a good corporate citizen. In addition to the media campaigns they provided a "Wellmobile" to hit the streets of Chicago to saturate the community with much needed wellness information. Clear Channel through their voter registration drives have added thousands of registered voters in their listening area. Clear Channel has had several "Stop the Music" sessions on their radio stations to use that time to promote peaceful dialogue to reconcile differences and their on air personalities have made personal appearances to do the same. For a number of years, Clear Channel has provided the community with a premier event that addresses women's issues of the community they serve and this event is known as "The Expo for Today's Black Woman". In the area of high energy cost, Clear Channel is a partner in the State of Illinois program known as "Keep Illinois Warm". Also, they have worked with Nicor Gas to help some of their listeners with promotional gifts to pay the listeners natural gas bills.

For the past two years, Clear Channel has teamed up with Nicor Gas and Jewel-Osco to raise funds for the heating assistance program known as "Sharing". The "Sharing" program is administered by the Salvation Army and they provide annual grants to qualifying residential customers to help pay their heating bills. Clear Channel used PSAs to promote shopping at Jewel-Osco on specified days and Nicor Gas used it's bill insert to promote the program (bill insert is enclosed). Jewel-Osco pays 5% of the total sales of each receipt accompanied by the Shop & Share coupon. It is this type of local team work with a local utility and a local food store that makes Clear Channel a good neighbor in our local community.

As I stated before, I could have volunteered at many other places but, I consider it a privilege and an honor to serve on the Clear Channel Advisory Board to address the local issues in my community.

Sincerely,

Comments in Response to Localism Notice of Proposed Rulemaking
MB Docket No. 04-233

FCC Mail Room

I submit the following comments in response to the Localism Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (the "NPRM"), released Jan. 24, 2008, in MB Docket No. 04-233.

Any new FCC rules, policies or procedures must not violate First Amendment rights. A number of proposals discussed in the NPRM, if enacted, would do so – and must not be adopted.

(1) The FCC must not force radio stations, especially religious broadcasters, to take advice from people who do not share their values. The NPRM's proposed advisory board proposals would impose such unconstitutional mandates. Religious broadcasters who resist advice from those who don't share their values could face increased harassment, complaints and even loss of license for choosing to follow their own consciences, rather than allowing incompatible viewpoints to shape their programming. The First Amendment prohibits government, including the FCC, from dictating what viewpoints a broadcaster, particularly a religious broadcaster, must present.

Violates 1st
Amendment
!!

(2) The FCC must not turn every radio station into a public forum where anyone and everyone has rights to air time. Proposed public access requirements would do so – even if a religious broadcaster conscientiously objects to the message. The First Amendment forbids imposition of message delivery mandates on any religion.

what
to free market economics?

(3) The FCC must not force revelation of specific editorial decision-making information. The choice of programming, especially religious programming, is not properly dictated by any government agency – and proposals to force reporting on such things as who produced what programs would intrude on constitutionally-protected editorial choices.

(4) The FCC must not establish a two-tiered renewal system in which certain licensees would be automatically barred from routine renewal application processing. The proposed mandatory special renewal review of certain classes of applicants by the Commissioners themselves would amount to coercion of religious broadcasters. Those who stay true to their consciences and present only the messages they correspond to their beliefs could face long, expensive and potentially ruinous renewal proceedings.

Equal Protection clause
!!

(5) Many Christian broadcasters operate on tight budgets, as do many smaller market secular stations. Keeping the electricity flowing is often a challenge. Yet, the Commission proposes to further squeeze niche and smaller market broadcasters, by substantially raising costs in two ways: (a) by requiring staff presence whenever a station is on the air and, (b) by further restricting main studio location choices. Raising costs with these proposals would force service cutbacks – and curtailed service is contrary to the public interest.

We urge the FCC not to adopt rules, procedures or policies discussed above.
